In providing for the regulation of admission of foreigners to and their residence in the Republic, the Immigration Act, 2002 (Act No 13 of 2002), inter alia, aims to promote economic growth through the employment of needed foreign labour which does not adversely impact on existing labour standards and rights and expectations of South African workers.

Temporary residence permits

In order to satisfy the Director-General that the issuing of a work permit to a foreigner would promote economic growth and would not be to the disadvantage of South African citizens or permanent residents, documentary proof must be submitted that a diligent search had been done and that the employer had been unable to employ a local candidate with qualifications or skills and experience equivalent to those of the applicant. This requirement is satisfied by means of an advertisement in the national printed media, which would afford South African citizens and permanent residents the opportunity to compete for the position.

In terms of section 31(2)(c) of the Act, the Minister may, for good cause, waive any prescribed requirement or form. Should a foreigner thus not be able to comply with the above requirements, he/she or the employer may request the Minister to exempt the applicant from submitting the relevant document(s). The following documents have to accompany this application:

- (a) A letter signed by the employer, citing the requirements to be waived and a comprehensive motivation for each requirement.
- (b) A copy of the applicant's curriculum vitae.
- (c) A copy of the applicant's passport and all temporary residence permits affixed therein.
- (d) A copy of the employment contract signed by both the employer and the employee.
- (e) Background on the company/institution for record purposes.

Should the request be considered favourably, a letter will be forwarded to the applicant or his/her employer, which has to be submitted with the application and remaining requirements at the nearest Regional Office of the Department or South African foreign office if the applicant is still abroad.

Permanent residence permits

In terms of section 31(2)(c) read with section 27 of the Immigration Act, 2002 (Act No 13 of 2002), and the permanent residence application form BI-947, the Minister may, for good cause, waive any prescribed requirement or form. Should a foreigner thus not be able to comply with any of the requirements, he/she may request the Minister to exempt the applicant from submitting the relevant document(s). The following documents have to accompany this application:

- (a) A letter signed by the applicant, citing the requirements to be waived and a comprehensive motivation for each requirement.
- (b) A copy of the applicant's curriculum vitae.
- (c) A copy of the applicant's passport and all temporary residence permits affixed therein.
- (d) A copy of the employment contract signed by both the employer and the employee. if applicable.
- (e) Background on the company/institution for record purposes.
- (f) Business Plan, Bank or financial statements, if applicable
- (g) Recommendation from the Department of Trade and Industry, if the application is made in respect of a business being conducted in the Republic.
