Please note:

- A study visa is issued for the duration of the course.
- *A “learning institution” means –
 - a) an institution of higher education established in terms of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act No. 101 of 1997); or
 - b) a college established in terms of the Further Education and Training Colleges Act, 2006 (Act No. 16 of 2006), but does not include –
 - i. a school offering further education and training programmes under the South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act No. 84 of 1996); or
 - ii. a college under the authority of a government department other than the Department of Higher Education and Training; or
 - c) a school contemplated in section 1 of the South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act No. 84 of 1996).
- A study visa holder at a learning institution as defined in section 1 of the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act No. 101 of 1997) and section 1 of the Further Education and Training Colleges Act, 2006 (Act No. 16 of 2006), may conduct part-time work for a period not exceeding 20 hours per week.
- A study visa shall automatically lapse if the holder thereof fails to register with or is de-registered from the learning institution at any time during the period for which his or her visa has been issued or if any of the undertakings referred to in subregulation (1)(b) are not met.
- Exchange programmes / agreements between foreign and South African learning institutions are based on reciprocity and mutual benefit, and this normally includes an exchange of students and staff, and a reduction or waiver of tuition fees at the host learning institution.
In the case of an exchange programme / agreement between an applicant's (home) institution e.g. in Germany and a learning institution in South Africa, if the letter of provisional acceptance from the learning institution in South Africa confirms that an applicant i.e. the foreign semester exchange student shall be issued with a study visa, our office shall accept and process the application for a study visa. However, if the terms and conditions of which include, for example, a reduction or waiver of tuition fees and / or an exchange of students, a signed and dated letter the applicant's (home) institution e.g. in Germany on its letterhead, confirming the existence of the exchange programme and the applicant's participation, shall also be submitted.
- The spouse and dependent children accompanying the main applicant may be issued with a visitor's visa (see http://www.suedafrika.org/downloads/Visitors_Permit.doc); however, dependent children of school-going age accompanying the main applicant must be issued with study visas (see http://www.suedafrika.org/downloads/Study_Permit.doc).
- Status / progress reports are not provided during the processing period (see). Furthermore, no ‘express service’ for processing visa applications is available – complete applications are adjudicated on a First-In-First-Out basis.
- Visa applications which are not complete shall not be taken in to be processed. It is therefore the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that his or her visa application is complete as per the checklist.
- In the case of inconsistencies and / or incomplete information, our office reserves the right to request the applicant to submit additional documentation to substantiate the visa application.
- Documentation that accompanies the visa application shall be original or copies authenticated by the issuing authority of the country of origin and where necessary, translated into English and certified as a correct translation by a sworn translator (beeidigter Übersetzer) at the expense of the applicant.
- A visa issued at a foreign mission of the Republic of South Africa shall be affixed to the passport of the applicant and shall only be valid if an entry stamp has been affixed thereto at the port of entry and the date of such entry stamp shall be the effective date.
